"...upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" – Matthew 16:18
Who is at the Controls?
Allen Webster

If life is a flight through time, who is in the cockpit?
If life is a joy-ride, who is behind the steering wheel?
If life is a voyage, who is at the helm?

Decisions determine direction (Joshua 24:15). Direction determines destiny (Matthew 7:13-14). Will we ascend or descend at the judgment? It all depends on who makes our decisions.

“ME”

"Invictus" is commonly quoted by valedictorians at high school graduations across America. It sums the philosophy of many youth as they begin their adult lives. It was written by William Ernest Henley, an early humanist who was crippled since his childhood in Gloucester, England. His "master-of-my-fate-captain-of-my-soul" philosophy was only a little ahead of its time.

Out of the night that covers me, black as the Pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be for my unconquerable soul.
In the fell clutch of circumstance I have no winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance my head is bloody, but unbowed.
Beyond this place of wrath and tears, the horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years finds and shall find me unafraid.
It matters not how strait the gate, how charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate; I am the captain of my soul.

Sinatra’s song, "I did it my way," is often requested at funerals. So, from the beginning of adult life to the end of it, many say, "I make my own choices—nobody tells me what to do."

Bible examples abound of those who had “me” on life’s throne. Note the personal pronouns of “a certain rich man.” “What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?” And he said, "This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater...there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry” (Luke 12:17-19). God called him a “fool” (Luke 12:20). Another rich man had the “me” philosophy and awoke in torment (Luke 16:23).

Self-will took Nebuchadnezzar from his throne (Daniel 4:30-37) and kept Moses from Canaan (Exodus 20:8-12). Felix trembled at the thought of giving control to Christ (Acts 24:25); Agrippa came close to handing over the reins, but not close enough (Acts 26:28). The prodigal is not the only young man who has let such thinking take him to the far country—and into the pigeon (cf. Luke 15:11-32).

Paul said, “Let no man seek his own, but every man another’s wealth…’I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own…” (1 Corinthians 10:24, 33). He added, "Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others” (Philippians 2:4). Self-will disqualifies a man from the eldership (Titus 1:7), as it does one from being a true Christian (Philippians 2:3-5). The Jews as a whole were guilty of "going about to establish their own righteousness" because they had not "submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God” (Romans 10:3).

We will never be able by our own bootstraps to rise out of the mire into which our sins have sunk us. The man who says he is in complete control of his life is mistaken. The devil allows him to think so, but serving self is sacrificing at Satan’s altar. There are no free men in sin’s death camp (Romans 6:17, 23). When we were young, our fathers may have allowed us to “drive” while sitting in their laps. We felt we were in control, but when the car veered from the road, they quickly took over. Many are sitting in Satan’s lap, “steer-“ing” their lives to a lake of fire. “Me” is not a safe guide for life (Proverbs 14:12; Jeremiah 10:23).

“MEN”

Others allow public opinion to make their decisions. How many should make Saul’s confession? “I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the Lord, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice” (1 Samuel 15:24). Eve let the reptile influence her, and Adam gave in to Eve; both let forbidden fruit get them into a “jail” (Genesis 3:6). Abraham feared Abimelech enough to tell “a little white lie” (Genesis 20:11), and Aaron made a golden calf at public demand (Exodus 32:21-24). Pilate wanted to set Jesus free but was too much of a people-pleasing politician to stand by his decision (Matthew 23:4-24). Many rulers believed on Jesus but would not confess “for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God” (John 12:42-43; cf. 5:44). Even Barnabas once gave in to peer pressure and dissociated himself from Gentiles (Galatians 2:13).

Paul wrote, “For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ” (Galatians 1:10). Jesus said, “Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God” (Luke 16:15).

Christians must strongly resist the pressure to conform to the world’s mold (Romans 12:1-2)—we are a peculiar people (Titus 2:14). Evil companions are bad for good morals (1 Corinthians 15:33), so we should stay away from them as much as possible (1 Thessalonians 5:22). Pitching tents toward Sodom has left behind the smoking ruins of many families (Genesis 13:12; 14:12; 19:16; 24, 26, 36). Any who love the opinion of father, mother, wife, children, brethren, or sisters more than Christ, cannot be His disciple (Luke 14:16; cf. 18:29, 30). “Men” are not a safe guide for crossing the chasm that divides earth and eternity (Matthew 7:13, 14).

“MESSIAH”

A third choice is to allow Christ to rule our lives. He stands today knocking at the door of every heart (Revelation 3:20), but He will never force His way in (cf. Luke 24:28, 29). He has no draft for His army, no subpoenas for His mediators (Matthew 22:37; 2 Corinthians 5:14). One who comes to Jesus must renounce all (cf. Revelation 12:11), take up his cross, and follow as closely as can in the Master’s steps (Luke 14:26, 27; 1 Peter 2:21-22).

The choice is difficult, but it is never regretted (2 Corinthians 7:10). Joshua gave God His life (24:15) and was never disappointed. Paul gave Christ His heart and never looked back (Acts 9; 2 Timothy 4:6-8; cf. Luke 9:62). His truth sets us free (John 8:32); His life is “abundant” (John 10:10); His rule is not grievous (1 John 5:3).

The truth is, “No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, or love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other” (Luke 16:13). Who is at your controls?

"I am Alpha and Omega..."—Revelation 1:11

KIDS’ VIEW OF LOVE:

• "I think you’re supposed to get shot with an arrow or something, but the rest of it isn’t supposed to be so painful.”
  —Manuel, age 8

• On what falling in love is like: “Like an avalanche where you have to run for your life.”
  —John, age 9

• "If you want to be loved by somebody who isn’t already in your family, it doesn’t hurt to be beautiful.”
  —Anita, age 8

• "It isn’t always just how you look. Look at me. I’m handsome like anything and I haven’t got anybody to marry me yet.”
  —Brian, age 7

God always has an Answer

It is easy to get discouraged when things go wrong, but we must not lose heart. God is at work in our world, even in the midst of pain and trial. The next time your little hut is burning to the ground, remember that it just may be a smoke signal to summon the grace of God. For any negative thing we say to ourselves, God has a positive answer for it:

• We say: “It’s impossible.” God says: “All things are possible” (Luke 18:27).
• We say: “I’m too tired.” God says: “I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28).
• We say: “I can’t do it.” God says: “You can do all things” (Philippians 4:13).
• We say: “I’m not able.” God says: “I am able” (2 Corinthians 9:8).
• We say: “It’s not worth it.” God says: “It will be worth it” (Romans 8:28).
• We say: “Nobody really loves me.”
  God says: “I really love you” (John 3:16; 3:34).
• We say: “I can’t go on.”
  God says: “My grace is sufficient” (2 Corinthians 12:9; Psalm 91:15).
• We say: “I can’t figure things out.”
  God says: “I will direct your steps” (Proverbs 3:5-6).
• We say: “I can’t forgive myself.”
  God says: “I forgive you” (1 John 1:9; Romans 8:1).
• We say: “I can’t manage.”
  God says: “I will supply all your needs” (Philippians 4:19).
• We say: “I’m afraid.”
  God says: “I have not given you a spirit of fear” (2 Timothy 1:7).
• We say: “I’m always worried and frustrated.”
  God says: “Cast all your cares on Me” (1 Peter 5:7).
• We say: “I don’t have enough faith.”
  God says: “My Word will give you faith” (Romans 10:17).
• We say: “I’m not smart enough.”
  God says: “I’ll give you wisdom” (1 Corinthians 1:30; James 1:1-5).
• We say: “I feel all alone.”
  God says: “I will never leave you or forsake you” (Hebrews 13:5).

A.S.A.P.

Ever wonder about the abbreviation A.S.A.P.? It brings to mind hurry and stress—“Get this done as soon as possible.” Let’s give it a new meaning to better deal with those rough days along the way.

• There’s work to do, deadlines to meet. You’ve got no time to spare, but as you hurry and scurry—A.S.A.P. (Always Say A Prayer).

• In the midst of family chaos, “quality time” is rare. Do your best; let God do the rest—A.S.A.P. (Always Say A Prayer).

• It may seem like your worries are more than you can bear. Slow down and take a breather—A.S.A.P. (Always Say A Prayer).

• God knows how stressful life is; He wants to ease our care. He’ll respond to all our needs—A.S.A.P. (Always Say A Prayer).

“Praying always with all prayer...with all perseverance...”—Ephesians 6:18
The Plain Truth about Money

Tiny children are often fascinated with money because it is shiny and small enough to go into their mouths. Then, kids reach the point when they understand that money has the power to buy things. That is a new reason for them to like money. Later, in their teen years their thinking can be dominated by a desire to possess money in order to impress others or to buy things that dad and mom won’t buy for them. As adults, well, a lot of adults are still fond of money.

Money in and of itself possesses no moral qualities. Money is neither righteous nor unrighteous. Money is an innately object, a means or tool to help humans obtain something else. It is one’s attitude toward money or riches that counts. In order to help us keep a handle on our attitude, we offer the following six truthful statements about money. May they serve as a reminder and warning to all of us.

(1) Money cannot buy love. Way back in the 1960s the Beatles were singing, “I don’t care too much for money, cause money can’t buy me love.” It was true then, and it is still true now. Money may impress folks and attract them to a money-possessing person, but money cannot buy genuine love. Young people, are you listening?

(2) Money doesn’t grow on trees. How many times did we hear our parents tell us that when we wanted something that we could not afford? Because it is true that money does not grow on trees and we cannot have it at the snap of our fingers, then we need to be good stewards with the funds that God has placed in our hands (1 Corinthians 4:2). Our Lord says, “Owe no man anything” (Romans 13:8). Christians ought not to use credit cards to the extent that they get themselves into debt that they cannot pay off.

(3) Money is not the root of all evil, but the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil (1 Timothy 6:10). The love of money is covetousness, and covetousness is idolatry (Colossians 3:5). Such a love affair with material riches has ruined friendships, marriages, and even congregations. How sad.

(4) Money never has and never will save a soul. Money can be used to help support the preaching of the Gospel (2 Corinthians 11:8, 9). It is also an instrument that isss us in edifying the faithful, but still, money cannot save souls.

(5) Money will not accompany us when we leave this world. Regardless of how much money one has, the money stays behind—you can’t take it with you. “For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we cannot carry nothing out” (1 Timothy 6:7).

(6) Money is not success, and success is not possessing money. Oh, if we could only help folks, including ourselves at times, see this point! Some rich people will go to hell. Some poor folks will go to heaven. One’s eternal destiny is not determined by his/her financial status. You want success, you say? Then listen carefully to what the Lord once told Joshua: “This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success” (Joshua 1:8). THAT is true success.

Let each of us resolve to accept the truth about money, and in the process beware of “the deceitfulness of riches” (Mark 4:19).

A Merry Heart Doeth Good...

A husband, trying to prove to his wife that women talk more than men, showed her a study which indicated that men use about 15,000 words a day, whereas women use 30,000 words a day. She thought about this, and then she told him that women use twice as many words as men because they have to repeat everything they say. Stunned at this, he said, “What?”

How About the Grownups? “Daddy, I want to ask you a question,” said little Bobby after his first day in Sunday school. “Yes, Bobby, what is it? “The teacher was reading the Bible to us, all about the children of Israel building the temple, the children of Israel crossing the Red Sea, the children of Israel making sacrifices. Didn’t the grown-ups do anything?”
Are Illnesses Such as Alzheimer’s Disease from God?

“And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?” (John 9:1-2). The disciples expressed a common belief of that day, that illness is often, if not always, punishment for sin. The disciples even considered that the man may have caused his own blindness by his sin in the womb! Jesus made it clear that the man’s illness had nothing to do with sin, or punishment from God, as He said, “Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him” (John 9:3). Jesus then went on to give the man his sight, and he ultimately worshiped Jesus as the Son of God.

Where does illness come from? We all realize that many times our lifestyle has an effect on health. Smoking, promiscuous sex, poor dietary choices, a sedentary lifestyle—these and many other things have an effect on our health. As time goes by, and we learn more about how we can protect our health, many of us are making choices that we hope will help us avoid illness. We will never know how much a healthy lifestyle has already protected us from many of the diseases that plague mankind.

However, there are many illnesses that medical science has good explanation as to what the causes are. Certainly smoking will increase one’s chances of getting lung cancer, but non-smokers get lung cancer, also. Other illnesses such as Alzheimer’s disease are still being studied. Our doctors may at some point have some suggestions as to what may lower our risk of succumbing to this disease, but there does not seem to be any good scientific explanation yet of what we may do to avoid the disease.

When the patriarch Job lost his possessions, his family, and his health (Job 1-2), his three “friends” all assumed that God was punishing Job for his great sins. Eliphaz told Job, “Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off? Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same. By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed” (Job 4:7-9). His “friend” Zophar thought Job was such a sinner, that he even went so far as to say, “Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth” (Job 11:6). While it is true that there are consequences for sin, in actuality, Job was suffering precisely because he was a righteous man. “And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?” (Job 1:8).

We live in a world that is under the curse of sin (Genesis 3), and illness is one of the consequences of Adam’s choice, a choice we also make (Romans 3:23). Nothing indicates, however, that God punishes anyone with a particular disease today. Job wanted to know why he was suffering, but even when God spoke to him out of the whirlwind, He never told Job why he was suffering. God is a God of who will help us cope with the difficulties of disease and suffering if we will turn to Him. Illness is not an indication of God’s punishment, and good fortune is not necessarily an indication of God’s approval. Those who suffer and those who care for them deserve our prayers and support.

Every Man's Book

"Study to show thyself approved unto God..." — 2 Timothy 2:15

The Bible is every man's book. To know the Bible and to handle it aright is the greatest accomplishment within the reach of any person. One may know English, astronomy, literature, music, sociology, and philosophy; but if one does not know the Bible, one has failed in the only subject that brings all things into their proper relationship and that enables one to know life at its best.

It is not intended for some special group. But not only is the Bible every man's book, it is written for the average person. Scholars may study it, but it is not written necessarily with scholars in mind. No one ever outgrows the Scriptures. The more one studies them, the wider and deeper they become. The Bible is a book which enables one to look into eternity. The best evidence of the inspiration of the Bible is to be found between its covers.

No one will ever be a useful Christian unless one is a student of the Bible. Matthew Henry said, "The Scriptures were not written to make us astronomers, but to make us saints." It is no wonder that Paul urged Timothy to study the Scripture, "rightly dividing" (handling aright) the word of truth, that he might be an approved workman before God (2 Timothy 2:15).

The Bible acknowledges man's faults; it is patient with man's weaknesses; and it is honest with his virtues and his hopes.

To own the Bible is to be rich. To study, to know, and to trust the Bible is to find life. To study the Bible is to be wise; to obey it, to be strong.

Let's Pull Together

At a county fair, the townspeople held a horse-pulling contest. The first-place horse ended up moving a sled weighing 4,500 pounds. The second-place finisher pulled 4,000 pounds. The owners of the two horses decided to see what these horses could pull together. They hitched them up and found that the team could move 12,000 pounds!

By working separately, the two horses were good for only 8,500 pounds. When coupled together, their synergism produced an added 3,500 pounds. It's a hard lesson for us, but unity consistently produces greater results than individual endeavors. "Teamwork divides the effort and multiplies the effect." —Our Daily Bread, Special Edition, Day 15

A Worthy Cause Unifies

One morning a father entered his home study to find the world map had fallen off the wall. In the process it had become torn. His two-year-old daughter, Anna, assisted in the repair. Her mother noticed a daughter's unusual quietness so she asked, "Honey, what are you doing?" Quickly and matter of factly, Anna replied, "We're fixin' the world, Mommy." If we will stay busy "fixin' the world" by taking the whole Gospel to the whole world in every generation (Mark 16:15, 16), we'll pull together.

Ten Facts about the Church of Christ

- We read of it in the New Testament (Romans 16:16)
- It exalts Christ as the only head of the church (Ephesians 1:22)
- It has no creed but Christ and binds no name on its members but the divine name, Christian (Acts 11:26)
- It speaks where the Bible speaks and is silent where the Bible is silent (1 Peter 4:11)
- It pleads for the unity of all believers in Christ (John 17:20, 21; 1 Corinthians 1:10)

- It is not a denomination, nor a group of denominations, but simply the body of Christ (Ephesians 5:23; Colossians 1:18).
- Its founder is Christ Himself (Matthew 16:18).
- Its aim is to save souls by Gospel preaching (Romans 1:16).
- It teaches that scriptural unity can be attained on all disputed doctrinal questions (1 Corinthians 1:10).

The Crucifixion from A to Z

- A reminds us of His arrest like a common criminal and the legions of angels who could have been summoned by Jesus.
- B is for the betrayal by a "friend," the murderer Barabbas, the blood that Jesus shed, or the beating that He endured.
- C makes us think of the cross on Calvary, the Jewish high priest, Caiaphas, before whom Jesus was tried, and the shameful crown of thorns, the Roman centurion who concluded that " Truly this Man was the Son of God!"
- D is for the desertion by His disciples, the darkness which enveloped the whole earth for three hours just before His death.
- E reminds us of the enmity of the religious leaders, Christ's crucifying pain, or the enormity of the darkness.
- F makes us think of the Father's agony in heaven that day and the forgiveness that Jesus desired even for His killers.
- G stands for the Garden of Gethsemane, the place of betrayal, and Golgotha, the site of the crucifixion.
- H is for Herod and the hypocrisy of those who condemned Him.
- I calls to mind the innocence of our Lord and His name Immanuel, meaning "God with us."
- J is for Judas, the trusted friend who turned betrayer, and John to whom was committed the care of His mother.
- K reminds us of the kiss of infancy placed upon the King of kings.
- L brings to mind the lies that they told, the matchless love that caused the Lord of lords to give His life "a ransom for many."
- M is for me (He died for me!), the mocking, the howling mob, and for His mother, Mary.
- N helps us to think of the nails that were driven through His hands and His feet, as well as the ninth hour, the hour He died.
- O calls to mind His opponents who appeared victorious.
- P has to remind us of Pontius Pilate who released the guilty and killed the innocent, and the purple robe placed upon the Lord in an act of derision.
- Q is for the quaking the earth did as the shameful deed was done.
- R has to do with the rejection of Jesus by His own disciples and the release of the infamous Barabbas.
- S stands for spitting in the face of the very Son of God, the terrible scourging, the spear that was thrust into His side, and the elite Sanhedrin who sanctioned such an unbelievable crime.
- T is for the tomb in which His body was placed, the thorns, His thirst, the false testimony, and the traitor.
- U reminds us of the unjust trials and the unspeakable shame.
- V helps us to remember the vicious vengeance of His enemies, the veil of the temple that was rent at His death, and the great victory over death that Jesus would very soon display.
- W stands for the water Pilate used to try to wash the guilt from his hands, and the fact that Jesus died for the whole world's sins.
- X stands for examining ourselves, which we do as we remember His death during the Lord's Supper.
- Y reminds me of the yells of the riotous mob as they cried out, "Crucify Him, Crucify Him!"
- Z is for the zeal of His executioners.

"This do in remembrance of me" —1 Corinthians 11:24
